SERRA International Pre-schools, Mumbai

With increasing demand of high quality early childhood education in the country, SERRA International Pre-schools is spearheading the penetration of its new age Reggio Emilia inspired pre-schools in India. Over the next seven years, SERRA International will be setting up over 1000 pre-schools across tier I and tier II cities in the country. Announcing the expansion plans, Arun Arora, chairman of SERRA International pre-schools, said, "Our aim is to revolutionise the early childhood education in the country by providing world-class curriculum." The Reggio Emilia educational approach of northern Italy is one of the recent entrants in early childhood education scenario in the country. A large number of pre-schools across developed nations such as US, UK, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada are practicing this unique approach which is based on the principles of respect for each child and self learning through exploration and inquiry in a stimulating and enriching environment facilitated by well trained teachers.
